My daily prayer is: _____

How has this been going?

What can you do to make it go better?

Lively Virtues (Capital Virtues): Meekness

Definition:

Meekness is the virtue that controls resentment at others, and helps us to grow in patience. Through Meekness we are able to remain patient when we are insulted. Angry outbursts at the smallest thing are characteristics of someone who does not have the virtue of meekness.

Which of the 7 Deadly Sins does Meekness overcome? _____

Example:

Someone said something mean to me and I was able to just let it go.

LIVE IT! Describe something you did, this month, to practice the virtue of Meekness:

Did you feel resentment towards another person as you practiced this virtue?

How did your actions help you to grow in patience?

Read Matthew 5:5 What does Jesus promise to those who are meek?
